

Women in Maths Day

| | | | |
|---------------|---|-------|-----------|
| Date: | 29 August 2019 | Time: | 9am – 5pm |
| Venue: | University Hall, Old Quadrangle | | |
| Registration: | https://ms.unimelb.edu.au/events/details?event=13169 | | |

Program

| | |
|----------------------|--|
| 9:00 – 9:10 | Welcome, Professor Jan de Gier (Head of School of Mathematics and Statistics) |
| 9:10 – 9:15 | Professor Liz Sonenberg , University of Melbourne Event opening |
| 9:15 – 10:00 | Dr Amie Albrecht – University of South Australia Solving problems in industry with mathematics: insights and case studies |
| 10:00 – 10:30 | Coffee Break |
| 10:30 – 11:30 | Women of Mathematics Professor Arun Ram (University of Melbourne) - Michele Vergne Dr Kim-Anh Lê Cao (University of Melbourne) - Florence Nightingale Dr Anja Slim (Monash University) - Hertha Ayrton |
| 11:30 – 12:30 | Panel Discussion Dr Maria Athanassenas (Defence Science and Technology) Professor Inge Koch (University of Western Australia) Professor Sylvie Paycha (University of Potsdam) Professor Asha Rao (RMIT) Professor Jan de Gier (University of Melbourne) Chair: Professor Kate Smith-Miles (University of Melbourne) The Future of the Diverse Mathematical Community |
| 12:30 – 2:00 | Official Launch of the Exhibition Women of Mathematics Throughout Europe Please join us to view the exhibition over a light lunch |
| 2:00 – 3:00 | Professor Inge Koch – University of Western Australia A statistical journey through imagery from mass spectrometry, fMRI and towards the sky |
| 3:00 – 4:00 | Professor Aurore Delaigle – University of Melbourne An introduction to functional data analysis |
| 4:00 – 5:00 | Close Please join us for networking over drinks |

The event is funded in part by the Georgina Sweet Award of Professor Kate Smith-Miles, as part of her Australian Laureate Fellowship.